

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	i-ii
Summary	iii-v

Chapter 1 – Introduction

1.1. Introduction	1
1.2. Problem formulation	3
1.3. Method	3
1.4. Limitation	6
1.5. Introduction to theoretical framework	7
1.5.1. Neo-classical liberal economic theory of international trade	7
1.5.2. Neo-Ricardian comparative advantage theory of international trade	8
1.5.3. Listian industry protection theory of international trade	9
1.5.4. Neo-realism and Neo-liberal institutionalism	10
1.5.5. Hegemonic stability theory	12

Chapter 2 – The World Trade Organisation

2.1. From GATT to WTO	13
2.2. Fundamentals and basic principles of the WTO	14
2.3. WTO-bodies and decision-making structure	17
2.4. Dispute Settlement	23
2.5. Future prospects and critical points of the WTO	25

Chapter 3 – The areas and actors of the Doha Round

3.1. Introduction	28
3.2. The process of the Doha Round	28
3.3. The main areas of the Doha-negotiations	32
3.3.1. The Singapore Issues	32
3.3.2. Agriculture	34
3.3.3. NAMA	39
3.3.4. GATS	41
3.3.5. Development	42
3.4. The main actors of the Doha-negotiations	45
3.4.1. The US	45
3.4.2. The EU	48
3.4.3. G20	51
3.4.4. LDCs and the African-group	52
3.4.5. The ACP-group	53
3.5. Economic and political theories accounting for the problematic Doha-process
3.5.1. Introduction	53
3.5.2. Economic theories accounting for the progresses and delays	54
3.5.3. Political theories accounting for the progresses and delays	61
3.5.4. IR-theories accounting for the powers of the actors	65
3.5.5. Factors explaining agricultural protectionism of developed countries	69

Chapter 4 – World Affairs influencing the Doha Round

4.1. Introduction to spill-overs of world affairs	73
4.2. The oil and food crisis	73
4.3. Civil wars, poor government and corruption	75
4.4. Terror and Islamic fundamentalism	77
4.5. Climate change	80

Chapter 5 – Conclusion and Perspectives 86

Appendixes:

1. WTO Members
2. WTO Organisational Structure and Dispute Settlement Procedure
3. Main Actors and Groups (US, NAFTA, EU, APEC, AU, African-group, LDCs, ACP-group, Cairns-group, G4, G6, G20, G90, G110)
4. Main Areas and Agreements (SI, Agriculture, NAMA, GATS, Development, Subsidies, Antidumping, Dispute Settlement, TRIPS, Environment)
5. Interview Søren Jakobsen, Administrator and Negotiator of GATS