This certifies that Ms. Salli Solange Mbong completed her internship at the Association for Community Awareness (ASCOA). Her internship period began on April 9, 2024, and concluded on July 31, 2024.

During her time with us, Ms. Mbong demonstrated high dedication and professionalism. She was actively involved in various projects and activities, contributing significantly to our mission of supporting vulnerable communities and displaced persons in Cameroon. Her tasks included gathering information on the state of refugees and displaced persons focusing on their rights with a wide array of aspects on forced migration. She was also engaged in series of cohorts training on community engagement and awareness, especially with the less privileged. An important move that she championed was aiding the organization in ensuring that laws governing refugee rights were respected amidst the socio-economic crisis and displacement of people.

She was a valuable member of our team and played a crucial role in successfully executing our programs through her in-depth input on theoretical application into practice.

Sincerely,

Linus Ayangwoh EMBE
